Description

Available for rent is a modern office space, fully renovated in 2025 and ready for immediate use. Situated on the first floor of a well-maintained building constructed in 2002, this property offers 80 square meters of internal area, ideal for a range of professional needs. The layout is designed for maximum functionality, with plenty of natural light and a flexible floorplan. Partially furnished, the space allows you to personalize it further, making it perfect to move in and start working right away.

Located in the vibrant area of Kato Paphos – Tomb of the Kings, this office benefits from a prestigious address in a lively business and residential district. The area is known for its historical landmarks, beautiful coastline, and an excellent balance of restaurants, cafes, and retail establishments. Enjoy easy access to the highway, ensuring smooth connections to other parts of the city, while all major amenities are just a short walk away. Large windows offer lovely sea views, creating a bright and inspiring work environment.
